Internship	Alfa Fellowship Program	Russia	Graduate	Graduate degree and at least two years of relevant professional experience in business, economics, journalism, law, public policy, or a related field.	Passed, Nov. 15, 2018	The Alfa Fellowship Program is a distinguished international initiative that each year offers up to 18 accomplished young Americans, Britons, and Germans the opportunity to complete a high-level professional development program in Russia. Over the course of the program, fellows complete work placements at leading institutions, attend professional seminars, and receive intensive language training. The fellowship provides a monthly stipend, accommodation, insurance, all program-related travel costs, language training in Russia, and private tutoring in the U.S., U.K., or Germany. The Alfa Fellowship Program was founded in 2004 with the aim of fostering a community of emerging leaders who have first-hand experience in the business, public policy, and cultural environments of Russia and the region. Since then, over 170 Americans, Britons, and Germans have been able to work, live, and travel in Russia through this unique professional opportunity. Key goals of the Alfa Fellowship Program are to expand networks of American, British, German, and Russian professionals, develop greater intercultural understanding, and advance knowledge of Russian affairs in the West. The program is funded by Alfa-Bank, and is administered in the U.S., U.K., and Germany by Cultural Vistas and in Moscow by the Fund for International Fellowships and Cultural Dialogue.	https://culturalvistas.org/programs/abroad/alfa-fellowship-program/

The doctoral students help integrate RISE Germany interns directly into the lab work and serve as personal and professional mentors. Participants receive stipends from DAAD to help cover living expenses, and the partner universities and research institutions provide housing assistance. By participating in RISE Germany, undergraduates and interns get a glimpse of advanced research work while gaining desirable practical experience in their field.	https://www.daad.de/rise/en/rise-germany/
Research Intership	The Humanity in Action Fellowship	Amsterdam, Atlanta, Berlin, Copenhagen, Sarajevo and Warsaw	Both	Students and recent graduates of all nationalities may apply if they are enrolled in or recently graduated from a university in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, the Netherlands, Poland, Ukraine and the United States.	Open for applications	Fellows participate in intensive four-week educational programs located in cities across Europe and the United States, with approximately 20 local and international students in each program. The programs are interdisciplinary, collaborative, and engaged learning experiences; they feature lectures and discussions with researchers, journalists, politicians, activists, and artists, as well as site visits to government agencies, non-profit and community organizations, museums, and cultural and memorial sites. The goal of these programs is to foster cross-cultural understanding and an appreciation of different perspectives and approaches for assessing past and contemporary social justice issues. After the four-week on-site educational programs, Fellows return to their countries to develop and implement Action Projects to address social justice issues in their own communities.	https://www.humanityinaction.org/programs/14-humanity-in-action-fellowship
